

IBS Investment Bank Joins Vet50 List

CORPORATE & REAL ESTATE FINANCE FOR GROWTH COMPANIES

IBS Investment Bank invests in a distinctive array of organically- sourced investment opportunities through its origination arm Institutional Banking Services, N.A. CORP.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., March 2019— Fort Lauderdale-based IBS Investment Bank a division of Institutional Banking Services, N.A. CORP (IBS, N.A.) today announced that the firm has been included as an honoree in the renowned Vet50 list—a compilation of the nation’s fastest- growing, veteran-owned businesses.

The ranking, created in partnership with Inc. magazine and the Institute for Veterans and Military Families at Syracuse University (IVMF), was born out of the iconic Inc. Magazine (INC) list of the fastest-growing private companies based in the U.S. Both distinctions are considered hallmarks of entrepreneurial success. On an annual basis, IVMF and INC compile a list of the 5000 fastest growing companies in America. Honorees recognized among the top ten percent of the list are noted as the most influential veteran-led companies in America.

“Our business has made several adjustments over the years to maintain relevance among our peers and partners. We are thankful to IVMF for valuing the efforts our team enough to consider honoring us”, said Jason Jackson, IBS, N.A., Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. All veteran entrepreneurs bring a unique set of proven skills and knowledge to the business world as a result of their military service,” said Mike Haynie, Syracuse University Vice-Chancellor and IVMF Founder, Executive Director.
