

IBS Investment Bank Joins Association For Corporate Growth

CORPORATE & REAL ESTATE CAPITAL FOR HIGH GROWTH COMPANIES

IBS Investment Bank invests in a distinctive array of organically-sourced investment opportunities through its origination arm Institutional Banking Services, N.A. CORP.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., June 2020— Fort Lauderdale-based private equity firm IBS Investment Bank, and its originations arm Institutional Banking Services, N.A. CORP (IBS, N.A.) today announced that its senior executives had joined the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG).

The Association for Corporate Growth is an organization providing a global community for mergers and acquisitions and corporate growth professionals. Founded in 1954, ACG has grown to more than 15,000 members throughout 57 chapters in North America and Europe. With the intention of driving middle-market growth, ACG members meet regularly to secure financing participation and share best practices. IBS, N.A. executives, have been actively collaborating with senior executives within the ACG community to bridge financing gaps caused by COVID-19.

“We joined ACG in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic to support fluidity in the capital markets. The adverse economic impacts of COVID-19 on the country are yet to be seen, let alone mitigated. We are in communication with other ACG members to develop best practices that will lead us into the future. The value created by our participation in ACG will have a tangible impact on our clients,” IBS, N.A. Chief Investment Officer Jason Jackson told reporters.
